

Anty Drudge in Court.

Prisoner's wife (relenting)—"Yes, he did strike me, but it was partly my fault. I was washing all day and was bad-tempered, and didn't have my dinner ready."

Anty Drudge—"Please your Honor. If you'll just sentence the prisoner to buy his wife Fels-Naptha soap it will end their wash-day fighting. She won't have half as much work then, and there'll be plenty of time to get dinner. She won't be tired and cross, either."

Do you spend 52 days of the year washing clothes? Fifty-two days bending over a tub of nauseous, steaming suds and 52 days of hard-rubbing on a washboard? Then stop it. Nature didn't intend any woman to work like a slave. Fels-Naptha will cut down the time spent in washing at least half. It will cut out the boiling, the steaming suds, the hard-rubbing.

Fels-Naptha will separate the dirt from your clothes while soaking in cold or lukewarm water so that a light rubbing and a simple rinsing will leave them clean and pure—ready for the line.

Look for the red and green wrapper.

WILLIAMSTOWN.

We are told that Lewis M. Seaver hopes to start early next week on his return trip.

There seems to be a good demand these days for our Grange hall for entertainment purposes.

Mrs. Beisy Martin Perkins, now of Dorchester, Mass., is quite ill at present and her sister-in-law, Miss Clara Dickerman, is nursing her.

The Mystic Star Dramatic club of Brookfield will present, "Among the Breakers," at our Grange hall on Monday evening, January 17.

Miss Belle Hollingsworth of Washington, Pa., an aunt of Mrs. Lewis M. Seaver, and a trained nurse, has just returned to her home after a stay of some weeks here.

We are glad to hear that Vern Edson, an osteopathic student in Kansas, Missouri, is being so greatly benefited in health at present by treatment he is getting there.

Mrs. Sarah Pratt, the mother of Mrs. Bert C. Young, now of Barre City, is visiting friends here just now. Mrs. Pratt has been pleasantly known here in the past.

Our former townsman, Dr. Elam C. Lewis, for many years a resident of Rutland, has just been re-elected the vice-president of a bank in Rutland, in his 84th year of age.

In the last year or two, Leslie D. Gale has had hotel work in Boston, at the same time that he has had his farm in town carried on. His wife divides her time between here and Boston, and just at present is in Boston.

The concert given here last Wednesday evening by the Redding male chorus of Barre City was greatly enjoyed. We think other towns about us will be "heating right" if they try to secure its services in similar concerts.

Rev. J. Edward Wright of Montpelier will preach again at our Universalist church next Sunday morning at the usual hour. In the evening, it is expected he will be at the service at the Methodist church, to take some part in it.

If all those in Barre City who de-lighted as so much in the concert Wednesday evening had "redness of ears" Thursday, "the burning" may be because of the praise that is heard on all sides of their work that evening.

The family of the late Rev. P. F. Barnard, so long an esteemed Congregational minister here, will long have an interest for some of our citizens. At present, Mrs. Julia Barnard Lyman is with her widowed sister, Mrs. Nellie B. Hall, in Greenville, N. H. Their sister, Harriet, is the wife of a well-to-do man in Kansas City, Mo. Carrie, another married sister, lives in Kalamazoo, Mich., and the only son in the Barnard family, William, lives in Marquette, Mich.

We hear golden opinions expressed of the talk given by Miss Mary E. Waterman at the reception last Monday evening, at the rooms of our Village Improvement society. It has been the dream of some that in some way our town library—so called for years—shall yet become a free library, so that there shall be only one public library in town and that open to all and free. Miss Waterman's advocacy of the realizing of this dream is said to have been quite masterly and it is argued that she ought to be heard again, in public and by a larger audience.

At the union service at the M. E. church on Sunday evening next, January 16, the music and some other exercises will be under the direction of our Good Templars. The following is the program: Organ voluntary; hymns; anthem; chorus; prayer; solo, Miss Arietta Jeffords; reading, J. Orville Walbridge; cornet solo, William Randall; short address, Grand Chief Templar M. B. Morgan; anthem, chorus; duet, Mrs. A. H. Jewett and R. S. Jeffords; solo, James Walbridge; reading, Miss Hattie Duckerman; solo, Miss Blanche Nixon; anthem, chorus; hymn.

NORTHFIELD.

N. Pellaggi & Co., Finish Addition to Their Granite Plant.

N. Pellaggi & Co. have finished the new extension to their plant. It is modern and equipped, one of the largest in this section of the state, and is fitted out with derrick which will permit handling the largest blocks of granite quarried.

Andrew Granfield is ill with threatened pneumonia.

Howard Holden of Providence, R. I., is a visitor with friends in town.

Miss Belle Houston returned yesterday from Burlington, where she visited at the home of W. P. Conger.

The Colburn Clothing company has concluded the purchase of the stock of goods of a clothing concern in Swanton and will immediately begin removing the stock to its store in this place.

The Woodmen entertained the members and friends of that order in their rooms last evening. Among those who spoke were James Powers, Doctor Judkins and William Kerr. The Woodman orchestra furnished music.

The annual meeting of the Northfield Savings bank was held in the bank Wednesday evening. The following officers were elected: President, A. E. Denny; vice-president, Frank Plumley; secretary, John L. Mosley. There are officers with W. W. Holden, H. C. Cady, F. N. Carpenter and M. D. Smith were elected trustees for the ensuing year.

DeWitt Clinton lodge of Masons has issued invitations to its 61st anniversary ball to be held in the Armory next Thursday evening. The Montpelier Military band orchestra will furnish music as usual. The ladies of Naomi chapter, O. E. S., will serve refreshments. The committees having the matter in charge are endeavoring to make this ball one of the most noteworthy of any similar events. Admission will be only by invitation.

Woman loves a clear, rosy complexion. Burdock Blood Bitters purifies the blood, clears the skin, restores rosy, sound health.

Torturing scabies spreads its burning agony every day. Doan's Ointment quickly stops its spreading, instantly relieves the itching, cures it permanently. At any drug store.

Doan's Regulate cure constipation, tone the stomach, stimulate the liver, promote digestion and appetite and easy passages of the bowels. Ask your druggist for them. 25c a box.

There's nothing so good for a sore throat as Dr. Thomas' Eucalypti Oil. Cures it in a few hours. Relieves any pain in any part.
